

CPW RNO Minutes May 2019

Attendees: Jo Untiedt, Patty Chapman, Alyssa Knutsen, Tom Werge, Brendan Cady, Stephanie Cook

1) Approval of minutes from April (6:00 PM)

Jo moved to approve last meetings minutes and unanimously approved

2) 501(c)(3) update 6:02 PM – 6:10 PM

Tom asked about everyone's addresses for registration;

Discussed a PO box versus using Jo's home address; Jo's address was okayed for the short run;

Proposed using a google voice account for the phone number;

Tom is doing this in his capacity as a concerned CPW citizen;

Look to have the filing completed this week.

3) Event July Black Arts 6:10-6:30 PM

Scoops co-owner, Stephanie Cook, would like to be involved with the July Black Arts Festival;

Black Arts Festival by Scoops - created by kids and some awards for kids in the neighborhood;

How do you advertise to kids in the area? Scoops can tap into City Park Moms;

Have art show up for the month of July;

Advertise at Children's Hospital;

July 13 for the parade;

Age groups categories for awards? Depends on number of submissions;

Everyone who brings in artwork gets free ice cream for an hour;

Create a checklist for Art Fair;

- What is the structure of the day of event?
- How do we inform young people about the event?
- Post Flyers at Local Events (which ones)
- Contact Community Groups (churches, hospitals, organizations)
- Contact Community Organizations
- How do submissions work?
- What groups should we involve?
- Framing questions for the event:
- What does cultural diversity mean to you?
- What does cultural diversity
- Create a flyer for the day of the event to recruit CPW board members
- Create a flyer for the event; include information for the CPW board

An aside: May 21 – Denver Mayoral Debate and District 9 at Denver Art Museum.

4) Landmark - (6:32 PM – 6:51 PM)

Group called Protect Larimer Square is the run by the developer

First historical district in Denver

Can use Historic Denver as a resource for issues

Concerns with the Board of Adjustments and how their decisions are reached

Board of Adjustments are supposed to notify the RNOs but they fail to do so

Request someone from Historic Denver to attend next meeting to help our understanding with Overlay designation;
